

Food Playground

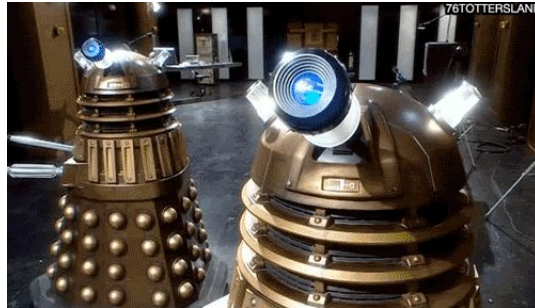

- Daniel, Greta, Niels, Nikolaj, Sebastian, Sergio

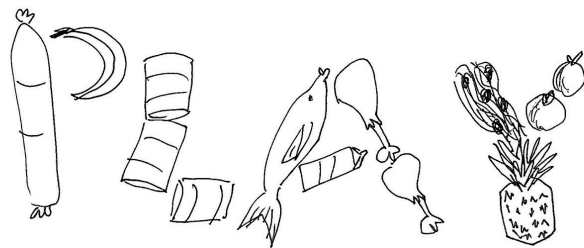

They say:

Do NOT play with your food!

We say:

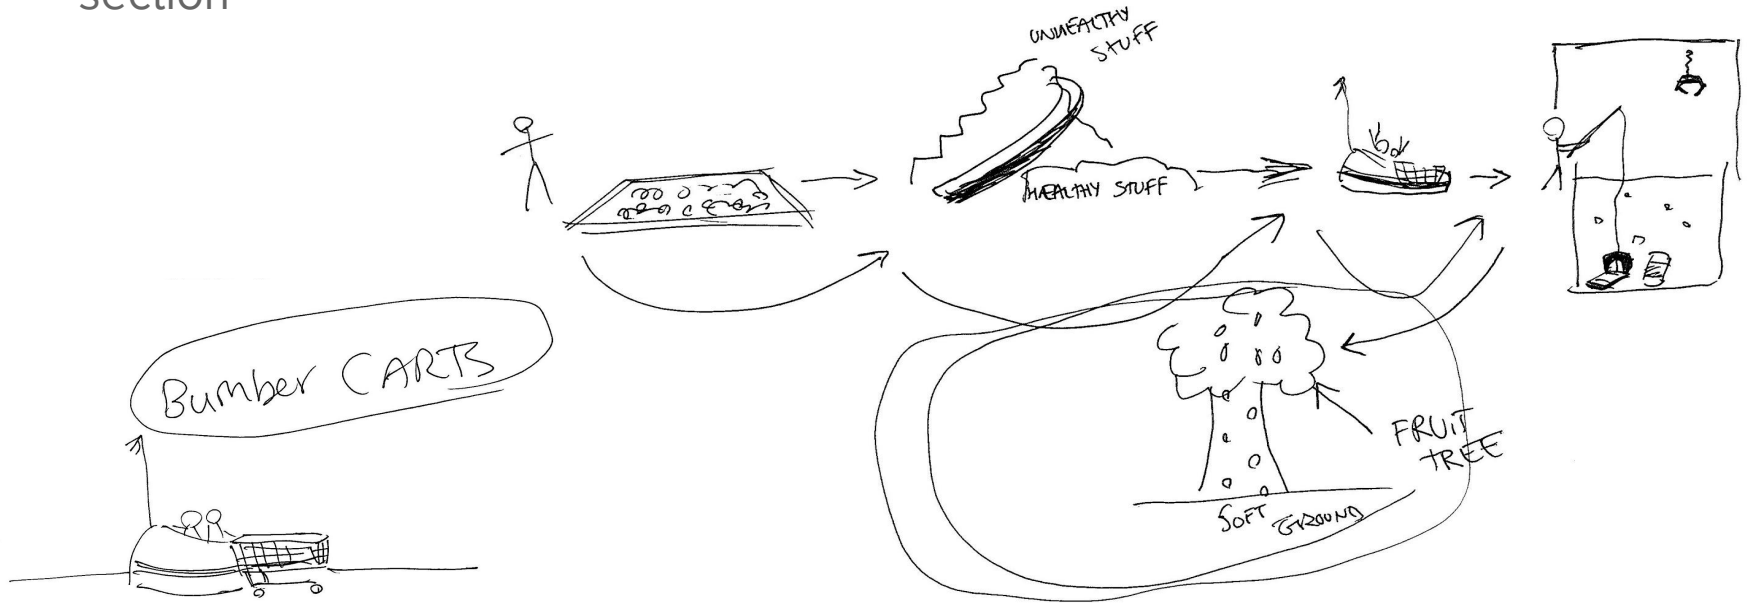

Why NOT?

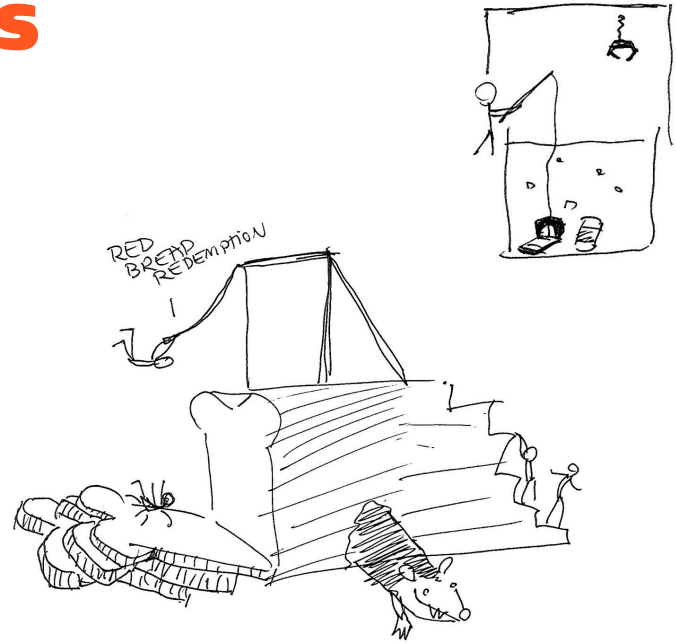

General Idea

- Food-themed sections facilitating playfulness
- Props consists of food related to the sections, and are freely available for each section

Other possible variations

- Pool full of sea creatures
- Candy sandbox
- Dairyland
- Bread warfield
- Tropical food

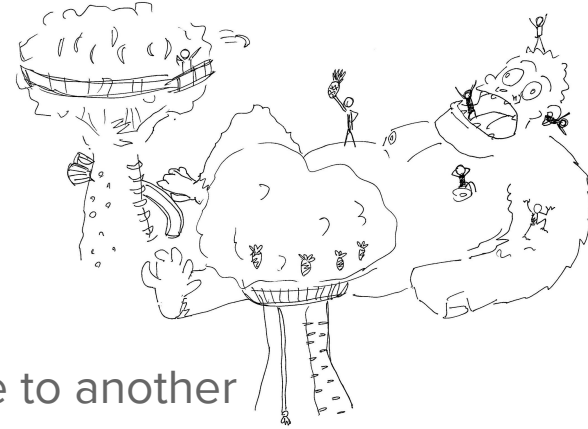

Example: "Tropical Food"-section

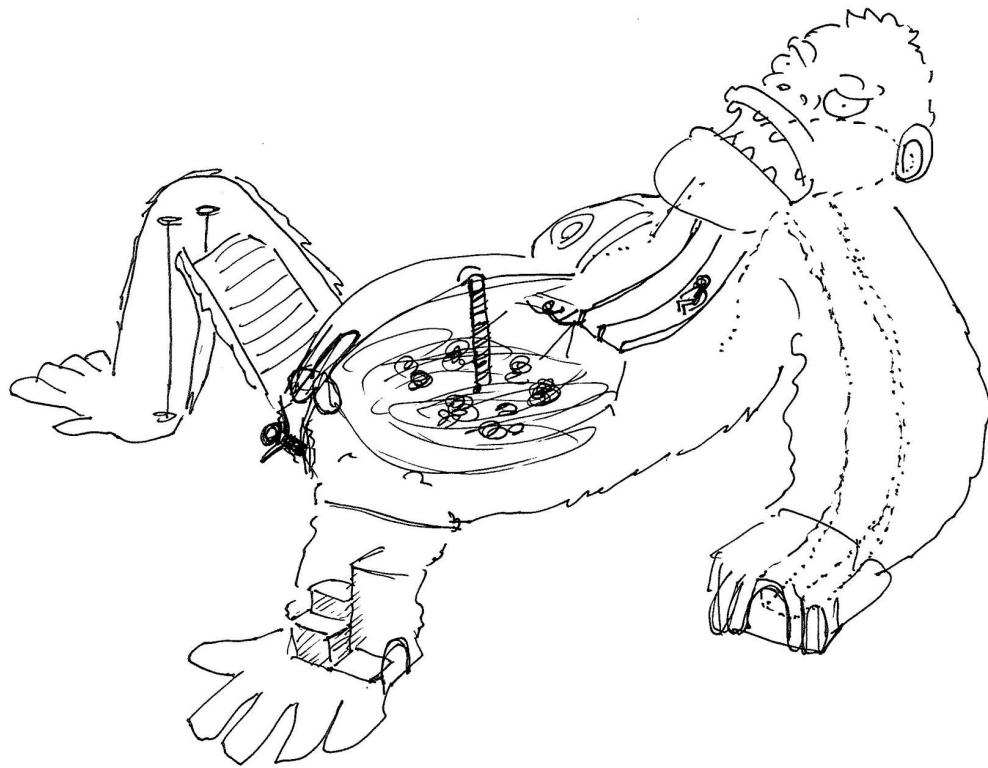

Example: "Tropical Food"-section

- Trees and plants that are climbable
- Ladders
- Rock-climbing walls
- Non-slippery materials
- Ropes, bridges and slides for traversing from one tree to another
- Fruits are hanging on the branches, ready to be picked and played with
- A big (fake) monkey is resting among the trees
- The fur is strong, and can therefore be climbed

Example: "Tropical Food"-section

Example: "Tropical Food"-section

- The mouth of the monkey leads to two slides, one going down the left arm and one to the stomach
- It is also possible to climb out the ears
- The belly is soft, and perfect for landing on from higher places
- The naval opens up to the inner-parts of the monkey
- The stomach is filled with a "ball pit", containing foamy spaghetti and meatballs
- One can enter/exit through the rear end (flexible, so you have to squeeze through)

Exterminate!
